Red card for sports centre in High Town

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

COUNCILLORS have refused a planning application for a multi-purpose sports centre in High Town.

The proposal, which had been recommended for approval by officers, was rejected after councillors expressed concern about the scheme and its suitability for the area.

The Dallow Development Trust had submitted plans to turn a four-storey site in Midland Road into a centre offering various sports facilities and activities such as football and cricket.

It had received support from local businesses, as well as former boxing champion Billy Schwer who said he planned to operate from the premises.

However, concerns had been raised that the centre would duplicate facilities already available in High Town and not meet the needs of local residents.

During a council meeting on Wednesday, Cllr David Franks, the leader of the Liberal Democrats, said he was

BAFFLED: Cllr Franks questioned a report written by council officers

'completely baffled' by the content of a report written by council officers which he said indicated the application should be refused but was recommending it for approval.

Labour Cllr Stephen Lewis, who was chairing the meeting said he was 'very sympathetic' to the comments made by Cllr Franks.

He said: "There does seem to be quite a difference in the recommendations and what's in the report. There's some fairly strong statements about there being no clear evidence for a need."

Both their views were supported by other councillors who also voted against the application and raised questions about the report. Only one voted in favour.

Before the vote on the application, Martin Shaw, a consultant working for the Dallow Trust, asked councillors to remove a condition on the application which stated that the centre could only be used for sporting activities, and not for events such as weddings or celebrations.

Officers had also recommended they restrict planning permission to five years.

Mr Shaw said the income gained from such events was key to the sustainability of the Trust.

After the meeting, he said he had been 'really shocked' and 'disappointed' about the councillors' decision.

He added: "We'll have to consider our next step obviously because we're disappointed about tonight but my immediate view is we're going to appeal against that decision."

Ex-EDL leader jailed for 18 months in fraud case

BY JULIA SUTTON

editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE former leader of the English Defence League has been jailed for 18 months for conspiracy to commit mortgage fraud.

Stephen Yaxley-Lennon, 31, also known as Tommy Robinson and the founder of the EDL, was imprisoned for his part in a conspiracy to fraudulently obtain two mortgages amounting to £162,000.

He made two loans to people wanting to buy property and then pointed them towards a woman mortgage broker who helped obtain phoney pay slips and income details.

Before he was led off to start his prison sentence, the court heard the 31-year-old father of three will have to spend his time in custody in solitary confinement because he is now in danger.

His barrister Charles Sherrard QC said that in January 2013 when Lennon was jailed for 10 months for using someone else's passport to travel to the USA he had spent the whole time in solitary and was moved to four different jails for his safety.

Mr Sherrard said: "Even in solitary he was regarded as being in danger." However, it emerged in court on Thursday, that since last autumn when he announced he had left the EDL, citing increasingly racist elements within the group, he has now been alienated by the followers in the organisation he once led.

He is also on a wanted list for Al-Shabab. The court heard how in the past while still the leader of the EDL, Lennon's home had been attacked and he and his family moved to a safe house.

Lennon appeared at court for sentence having earlier pleaded guilty to mortgage fraud offences.

He pleaded guilty to two counts of conspiring with others to obtain a mortgage by misrepresentation from the Abbey and Halifax building societies.

He will serve half the 18 month sentence behind bars before he is released.

Lennon was joined in the dock by Steven Vowles, 26, of Heron Drive, Bushmead, who admitted conspiring with others to obtain a mortgage by misrepresentation and transferring criminal property.

He also admitted possessing 3.48 grams of cocaine with intent to supply and being concerned in the supply of class A drugs. He was jailed for 27 months.

Lisa Moore 28 of Newbury Lane, Silsoe, pleaded guilty to conspiracy to obtain a mortgage by fraudulent misrepresentation.

She was given a six month prison sentence suspended for 18 months and told she must carry out 100 hours of unpaid work and pay costs of £1,500.

Mortgage broker Deborah Rothschild, 44, of Poplar, Toddington, pleaded guilty to four charges of conspiring to commit fraud by false representation. The charges involved the obtaining of four mortgages. She was jailed for 18 months.

Anjee Darcy, 31, of Hardwick Green, pleaded guilty to two offences of conspiring to commit fraud by misrepresentation and false accounting. She was given a 15 month sentence, suspended for 18 months, and told to carry out 200 hours of unpaid work.

Ex-councillor raises concerns about 'bullying'

FORMER Labour councillor Robin Harris has accused his fellow councillors of 'bullying' and 'membership packing' following his resignation earlier this week.

Mr Harris said he had become 'increasingly concerned' by the behaviour of some councillors in using 'underhand tactics' to get their way.

He had represented residents in the Farley ward and was in charge of Luton council's finance portfolio, as well as being on the board of directors of London

Luton Airport Limited.

In a statement, Mr Harris said: "I have become increasingly concerned by the behaviour of some councillors in using underhand tactics, such as bullying and membership packing, to get their way."

"I personally came into politics to make a difference and this behaviour has now become a distraction to doing that job, which is why I have taken this course of action."

Last week, Mr Harris lost out in a bid to be nominated as one of the Labour candidates for the 2015 councillor elections in the Farley ward.

Two of his colleagues who were selected, Cllr Mahmood Hussain and Cllr Dave Taylor, said they were not 'aware' of any bullying or problems within the local Labour party.

Cllr Hussain added: "We do differ and have different points of views but anybody being bullied by anybody? No."

"Especially Mr Harris, he certainly would not be bullied by anybody."

Will Anisha find true love on Take Me Out?

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LUTON girl has made her debut appearance on ITV's entertainment show, Take Me Out, where resident cupid Paddy McGuinness hopes to fix her up with the man of her dreams.

Ex-Putteridge High School student Anisha Khetia, has joined the panel of 30 single ladies looking for love.

Each week, four brave boys try to impress the 22-year-old and the rest of Paddy's flirty 30 to try and bag themselves a hot date.

But remember, 'no likey, no lighty' - if the girls don't like what they see, the boys face a lonely trip back home.

For the lucky couples who manage to bag themselves a date are then whisked off to the sun-kissed 'Isle of Fernandos'.

Student Anisha said she was shocked to be picked out of 40,000 applicants to appear on the show.

"I honestly entered as a bit of fun after a friend suggested it last May," she said. "I sent the application form off and had completely forgotten about it when I found out I had made it through the first round. It wasn't until the end of November that I had been picked."

With 30 beautiful girls vying for the attention of the lads, you could imagine that the atmosphere would be quite hostile, but Anisha said this wasn't the case.

"There was no nastiness at all. All of the girls were happy when someone got picked," she said.

"I'm still in contact with the girls and we are planning to meet up soon."

As to whether Anisha found love on the programme, she is remaining very tight-lipped. She teased:

"I was single when I started the show and I went out there with a very open mind."

Police look into Collymore tweets

POLICE have spoken to a Bedfordshire teenager following allegations of racial abuse against Stan Collymore via Twitter.

Officers from Staffordshire Police spoke to the 15-year-old from Bedfordshire and a 14-year-old in the Liverpool area about the incident, though neither was arrested.

A statement from Staffordshire Police read: "We are working with a number of police forces investigating potential criminal offences involving abusive tweets directed at Mr Collymore."

"A 14-year-old in the Liverpool area and a 15-year-old in Bedfordshire have been spoken to by officers investigating the recent Twitter activity.

"At this point, neither have been arrested and the investigation is ongoing."

Former Liverpool footballer Collymore had said he was racially abused and sent death threats via Twitter.

He said the social media network was 'not doing enough to combat racist/homophobic/sexist hate messages, all of which are illegal in the UK'.

In a separate incident on Thursday Mr Collymore was sent abusive tweets by a user who appeared to be from Luton. The account has since been deleted.

Councillors back 'Leon's Law' call

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

CAMPAIGNERS have moved one step closer to the implementation of 'Leon's Law', after Luton councillors unanimously voted to support the use of body-worn cameras by police officers.

'Leon's Law' was proposed following the death of 39-year-old Leon Briggs, who died in the custody of Bedfordshire police on the November 4, 2013.

The father-of-two was detained under Section 136 of the Mental Health Act and died shortly after his arrival into the custody suite at Luton police station.

The proposed law would make it compulsory for all interactions between the police and the public to be recorded via body-worn cameras.

Speaking at the full council meeting on Tuesday night, leader of Luton council Hazel Simmons, said: "The council supports in principle the immediate introduction for all police constables to wear body-worn video equipment which is to be activated during all arrests, detentions or use of force."

"The council further

DIED IN CUSTODY: Leon Briggs

believes that since police officers cannot predict how any conversation with a member of the public will progress, the equipment should be activated at the commencement of any such conversation.

"The evidence shows that use of body-worn cameras will go a long way, at a minimal cost, to reassure the public and protect these police officers."

"As a society we should look to make changes particularly in incidents where people have died."

These sentiments were echoed by councillors across all three political parties, and the motion was unanimously supported.

Following the meeting, the Justice for Leon Committee said: "We are proud to have gained the full and unanimous support for Leon's Law at Tuesday's Luton Borough Council meeting."

"At a time when the issue of police accountability and confidence in policing is under severe strain, the implementation of Leon's Law without delay will, we believe, greatly reduce the chances of suspicious deaths in custody and help restore public confidence in our police."

"Our efforts are directed in pursuit of justice for Leon, uncovering the truth about his death in police custody and ensuring that measures are put in place to prevent a re-occurrence of these needless tragedies."

"The Justice for Leon Briggs Committee would like to give their personal thanks to all Luton councillors for their unanimous backing for Leon's Law."

An investigation by the Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) was launched immediately after the death of Mr Briggs, and five police officers and two members of staff have been suspended as enquiries continue.

EXCITED: Professor John Brewer helped pick Sochi team

Professor helps to pick Olympic team

THE University of Bedfordshire's sports science expert, Professor John Brewer, has helped to select Team GB's Winter Olympics squad for Sochi.

Professor Brewer, chairman of British Ski and Snowboard, was on the panel that ratified the 19-strong team of skiers and snowboarders, who will travel to Russia.

"Picking the ski and snowboard squad was an incredibly tough job, but I believe the team can meet UK Sport's target of up to two medals," he said.

Woman arrested during fraud raids

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A LUTON woman has been arrested as part of a series of nationwide raids by the Home Office targeting immigration fraud.

The 25-year-old was apprehended on Tuesday following a criminal investigation into missionary society in Manchester.

The investigation is focused on the sponsoring of Indian nationals to work at the society as Ministers of Religion, under the Tier 2 and Tier 5 migrant workers system.

Officers visited 15 addresses in Slough, Southall, Southampton, Luton, Hounslow, Birmingham and Leicester shortly after 7am.

Ten people were arrested on suspicion of obtaining leave by deception, contrary to Section 24 of the 1971 Immigration Act.

They are now being questioned at police stations across the UK, and all the addresses visited are being searched.

A further nine people encountered during the raids were arrested for immigration offences, including overstaying visas.

The nine are unconnected to the criminal investigation and steps will now be taken to remove them from the UK.

Three separate cash seizures were also made and are now subject to investigation. The arrests bring the total number of people arrested in connection with the criminal case to 22, according to the Home Office.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

Car chase was '20 minutes of madness'

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MOTORIST led police officers on a high speed pursuit through Luton at speeds of 80mph.

On Wednesday, Abdul Khan of Calverton Road, Luton, pleaded guilty at Luton Magistrates' Court to dangerous driving and failing to stop, after tearing through residential roads during the pursuit.

Magistrates heard how the 22-year-old was first seen by police on Beechwood Road at around 12.30am on January 9, driving without his lights on. But when officers tried to stop the car, it sped off from the scene.

A 20-minute high speed chase involving six police vehicles ensued, as Khan drove down dual-carriageways on the wrong side of the road at up to 80mph. With no sign of him stopping, police came close to calling the pursuit off as it had become too dangerous.

Eventually the car came to a stop in Crawley Green Road as Khan crashed through a garden wall. He tried to evade officers again, but was found hiding behind a shed in a nearby garden.

A statement from a police officer involved in the pursuit said: "This was one of the worst pieces of driving that I have ever seen."

Defence solicitor Richard Bayliss described the incident as '20 minutes of madness'. Khan will be sentenced at Luton Crown Court on Friday, February 7.

Charity should begin with our flood victims

SIR – My heart goes out to the flood victims all over Great Britain.

You can't imagine what it must be like having your home filled with water.

But what has struck me is that in the past when there have been disasters in the Philippines, Pakistan and other countries, Mr David Cameron has donated our money. Millions and millions has gone overseas.

But has he stood up and said he is going to do the same for his country? Not on your life.

Has he, or any other of our so-called leaders gone down to see the damage the floods have done? (Editor's note: David Cameron visited Oxfordshire).

All they are doing is ducking and diving to see if they can cut the money for the sea defences.

I can remember not long ago when they had floods in Pakistan. There were people throughout The Mall with collection buckets.

HIGH WATERS: Villages and towns throughout Britain have been affected by flooding

Has anyone seen anyone collecting for people affected by the floods in Britain?

We've just had the biggest waste of time - Christmas.

All the spending on things that people don't need, the religious people standing in pulpits telling us to help our neighbour and do good to all men.

Can you see any of this going on?

And of course you have all of the charities advertising on the television, telling us where to send our money.

But not a dicky bird about how you can send a donation to the flood victims in England.

Most didn't want war

SIR - I AGREE with Zayd Faaz (LoS Letters - 19/1/14) that the war on terror has contributed to problems at home, but the majority of the public did not support the war in Iraq.

Sure Sadjia Mughal should be applauded for leading a group to train Muslim mothers to educate children and prevent them from turning to extremism.

She is at least trying to do something positive unlike Mr Faaz who just cynically condemns it as failed project from the start.

There is no doubt these young men are being indoctrinated by jihadists on the internet.

Sadly we rarely, ever hear Muslim leaders publicly condemning these young people, which not only increases Islamophobia but damages the reputation of the Muslim community.

Mrs Pam Bree,
West Hill Road, Luton

We can't lose libraries

SIR - WIGMORE is about to lose its library thanks to the town's Labour council.

This move is purely politically motivated and it is Labour's way of point-scoring against the Liberals who are very strong in the Wigmore area.

This much used library is one of the very few council funded facilities in the Wigmore area, and its loss will be felt by both young and old members of the community.

Given that this library covers actual council tax paying households, I feel that we are getting a very shabby deal, and trust that the community will remember this the next time that they get the chance of making their feelings known at the council elections.

Mr J E Field,
Raynham Way, Luton

Take the blame, Olly!

SIR - I CAN'T help feeling that our Police and Crime Commissioner Olly Martins has missed the point when making his public apology after being reprimanded for disclosing information.

Despite admitting that HE discussed confidential matters with a close associate, his statement goes on to blame his friend for 'not appreciating the sensitivity of what had been said'. Stop passing the buck!

As for suggesting that this matter will now 'overshadow' the important issue of the investigation into the death of Leon Briggs - maybe he should have thought of that before leaving details of the case.

I'm not surprised the Leon Briggs campaign group are unhappy. They have played by the rules, showing dignity and working hard to ensure justice is done, yet the so-called professional is busy spilling details. A written warning is not good enough.

Mary Spillane,
Stopsley, Luton

Ratings are not clear

SIR - I HAVE been following your stories concerning food hygiene ratings. This is yet another Government meaningless scheme.

Meaningless because unless we, the patrons of the establishments concerned, are made aware of the ratings awarded what use are they? A case in point, the only place I have ever seen one of these certificates was at an outlet where it showed the establishment to be a respectable 4.

A closer look revealed this was back in 2012. On looking them up on the Food Standards website their latest award is just 2. Is that safe? The award clearly only tells half the story.

How do you 'scale' potential hazardous health standards? A 0, 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 what does that mean? At which number am I potentially at risk?

It seems to me that there is only one standard - pass! Having a certification of 0-5 makes no sense at all.

Either the place meets standards or it doesn't. Pass or fail it's as simple as that.

Take on the marathon

SIR - I'D LIKE to invite readers to join me in signing up to the Virgin London Marathon 2014 for Whizz-Kidz.

At age 86 this will be my second year running for Whizz-Kidz, and the encouragement I received last year has spurred me on to run again.

I have seen how the money helps Whizz-Kidz transform these young people's lives - providing wheelchairs and delivering fun clubs and training. You can sign up now, at <http://www.whizz-kidz.org.uk/marathon/>

Iva Barr, (oldest woman London Marathon participant, and proud Whizz-Kidz runner).

Respect our opinions

SIR - WHY do some people get upset when Ron Turvey and I write letters to the papers expressing our opinions.

We are not like MPs, whose decision making can affect peoples lives.

I've been writing letters for 18 years, so show a little respect for my opinions. At the end of the day, that's all they are.

Food is either bad for you or makes you fat

WHEN the swish family Lowe was growing up sugar was good for you. It gave energy and was an accompaniment, in one form or another, to most foods. In the tea, on the cereals, on the puddings, in the Tizers and ice cream sodas. And if there was one thing better than sugar, it was fruit. Again in any form, au naturale, in puddings, in home-made jam and as juice.

When curries started to make an appearance on the menu, it was in them. Then white sugar became bad and brown sugar good. Then cane sugar became bad and beet sugar good – although I suspect that was more to do with European farmers getting their own way than its benevolence.

Now sugar in any form is the demon that is making most of us obese and ill. Or so the scientists, foodologists and government experts tell us.

And even fruit juice is bad as it contains loads of sugar.

But before you all contemplate suicide, we are also being told that chocolate and red wine is good for us. I think I would happily give up fruit juice for a square of dark chocolate and glass of fruity red (don't tell them it's fruity).

The trouble is I don't entirely trust the information we are being given. I don't trust what the food and drinks industry tell us and I don't trust what the Government tells us.

This is not because I am a distrustful person, although I am, but because they have either lied to us in the past or don't know what they are talking about. And food labelling is not much use either, unless it is going to say in big, black letters: This is bad for you!

Even that will not help much, as it seems to apply to almost everything at any given time, except of course chocolate and red wine, where the label will be: This is not bad for you! Until next week, at any rate.

It makes you wonder how we managed to survive at all, let alone grow to seven billion of us.

But the Government has an answer if it chooses to put our money where its mouth is.

It should tax, and tax heavily, anything it thinks is bad for us, and remove taxes from anything it thinks is good for us. So taxes on fruit juice, no taxes on red wine. Makes me happy.

And if manufacturers think they are hard done by, it is up to them to prove the Government is wrong to get the taxes removed.

It seems a win-win to me, which no doubt means I haven't thought it through properly. But at the very least it might concentrate a few minds and stop us being fed, pun intended, mixed messages and garbage.

'Robin Hood' tax is supported in town

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON Borough Council has become the 40th authority to back a motion which calls for the government to help the poorest in society by introducing a transaction tax on banks.

A motion proposing the introduction of a Financial Transaction Tax, also known as the 'Robin Hood' tax, received support from all Labour councillors at a meeting on Tuesday night.

The tax aims to discourage bankers' risk-taking by taxing transactions of shares, currencies and bonds, but it is not enacted in the UK.

It is predicted that the tax could generate £20billion

SUPPORT: Luton's labour councillors backed the 'Robin Hood' tax annually in the UK alone; money which the authority believes should help to fund public services.

Amy O'Callaghan, Labour Councillor for South ward, moved the motion, saying: "The council is under enormous pressure as funds from the government are pulled and services are stripped back. Local government has never seen anything like it before.

"The decision to back the Robin Hood tax was a great opportunity for us to show where our values lie."

Barnardo's start the search for charity volunteers

CHILDREN'S charity Barnardo's is looking to recruit volunteers in Luton as part of its bid to continue its work across the county.

The charity said it needed more volunteers to help raise awareness to support vulnerable children and young people. Janet Meredith, Barnardo's community fundraising volunteer manager in Bedfordshire, said:

"If you speak to people who volunteer they will tell you they love it and Barnardo's would be lost without them. So why not help vulnerable children and young people in your local area and have fun at the same time?"

Top chefs in battle of school dinners!

ON WEDNESDAY four chefs went head-to-head at Barnfield College as they battled to be crowned the best school culinary expert in the Eastern region.

Among the group was Lealands High School's kitchen manager Doreen Peacock and the winner Tanya Watkin, from Eaton Bray.

The annual contest was organised by the Lead Association for Catering in Education (LACE) and was part of ten regional finals taking place between now and March.

This week Luton played host to a contest for school chefs. CARL MUNGABI has been finding out who had the recipe for success...

So exactly what does go on in a school chef contest like this?

Tanya, who works for Eden Foodservice and is based in Central Bedfordshire, said: "The first round is the paperwork round and you have to fill out forms on the main course and then make sure that you have all the ingredients to make it nutritionally balanced."

"You also have to use two Maggi/Nestlé products in the main course and one in the pudding."

"This year they tried to get us to include foods from around the world."

Tanya's combination of a main course of a Spanish chicken cocido and creme de sant Josep dessert was enough to send her through to the finals in May being held in Hampshire.

Doreen's main of a Caribbean medley was given a high commendation.

She said she was 'delighted' at winning another prize at the contest.

She added: "Each time I have competed I have been awarded the dessert prize."

"So it was a pleasant surprise to win the highly commended main course this time."

"I love entering these competitions as it is a great way of showing off the skills of school catering teams."

"I'm very grateful to Lealands High School for the support that they have given me over the years."

Doreen was given £150 and a plaque for her Caribbean dish

Vauxhall crowned leading van maker

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

VAUXHALL built over 44,000 vans at its Luton plant last year, making it Britain's number one van maker – for the 12th year in a row.

The vehicle manufacturer celebrated 110 years of building and selling vehicles in 2013, and says receiving the figures to prove they have dominated the market for more than a decade 'was the perfect way to round off its landmark year'.

Duncan Aldred, Vauxhall's Chairman and Managing Director, said: "The Luton-built Vivaro is the lynchpin of our award-winning van range so it's a fantastic way to round off our 110th birthday celebrations."

LYNCHPIN: Sales of the Vivaro van have boosted Vauxhall

The town's van factory is currently ramping up to build the new Vivaro which goes on sale later this year.

Facility changes have begun with important upgrades already installed in the body shop.

Significant investment has been made including 95 million euros in specific plant changes, 112 million euros in vendor tooling of which 34 million is in the UK and 12 million on facilities.

Over 40 per cent of content for the new vehicle will be sourced locally.

Discussion is filmed for international TV channel

MORE than 100 residents came together in Luton to be part of the filming for a programme which is broadcast internationally.

The panel show 'Jang Forum', which is shown on the Geo Television channel, features discussions on the issues faced by the Pakistani and Asian community in the UK and Europe.

Akbar Dad Khan, who attended the filming at the Ghousia Centre, said: "There was lots of intelligent discussion around areas including extremism, education and drugs.

"The producers came to Luton to film one show, but left with enough material to make two." The first episode aired on Friday, with the second due to be shown on Friday, January 31.

"All the students and staff did their school proud demonstrating our commitment to achieving excellence in everything we do."

Ofsted also noted that the headteacher is supported by a good and well trained governing body that understands the strengths of the school and challenges effectively in areas where improvement is needed.

Mr Hawes' funeral service was held on Thursday

Founder of KD Hawes firm dies

THE founder of a carpet fitting firm in Luton has died.

Keith Hawes, 70, the founder of KD Hawes in Bramingham, passed away last week after a four-year battle with cancer. Mr Hawes started his company in 1968 and it currently employs more than 40 people.

His son, Colin Hawes, who now runs the business, said his father had had a 'massive impact' on the town and many messages had been sent to the family since his death.

Tributes to 'caring' former councillor

BY LAUREN ARCHELL

lauren.archell@lutononsunday.co.uk

TRIBUTES have been paid to former Luton councillor Mohammed Ramis Ali, who has sadly passed away following a period of ill health.

At the full council meeting, which was held on Tuesday, a number of Mr Ali's colleagues came together to honour a man they described as committed, caring and dedicated to volunteer work.

Leading the tributes was Mayor of Luton, Cllr Sheila Roden, who said: "It is my sad duty to report the death of former councillor Mohammed Ramis Ali."

"Mohammed Ali was first elected to the council in 1995 and served for eight years until May 2003 as councillor for Biscot Ward."

"He will be remembered for his volunteer work which he was still involved with when I last saw him about two months ago."

Leader of Luton council,

Hazel Simmons added that she knew Mohammed as an active member of the labour group for many years, while councillor Mahmood Hussain concluded: "It is with great sadness that I stand here following the death of Mr Ali."

"He was determined to do good for the community. He did a huge amount of volunteering and made a great contribution to the town."

"The community will miss him and so will I."

CHLOE Gallagher has a smile that would melt hearts and an incredibly infectious giggle, but as soon as she steps onto the tennis court she means business.

Within minutes of meeting the 10-year-old from Luton, tennis balls are whizzing around at frightening speeds, delivered with the power of someone more than twice her age.

Big Dave takes on a 'Little Stroll'

DAVE Redmond is a 6ft, 24-stone criminal barrister from Dunstable who is taking on a big challenge.

By his own admission he is an unlikely candidate to go on a 1,100-mile trek – but this year the 31-year-old has vowed to 'make a difference' and thus, the idea for 'Big Dave's Little Stroll' was born.

All in the name of charity, Dave is going to walk from John O'Groats to Lands End, the length of mainland Britain, all on his own.

He will be carrying all his own kit the entire journey and will be sleeping in a tent every night.

The rules for the challenge are simple: no cars, buses, boats, trains or planes, no donkeys or other livestock, no hitching a lift on a passing teenager's handlebars or borrowing the skateboard or rollerblades off of the local kids!

Only pure leg power (together with a fair amount of blood, sweat and tears) is going to drive him for the journey and what is more, he is aiming to achieve this in about 50 days (give or take!) after setting off in June.

So what on earth persuades

a man who describes himself as 'a bit squidgy around the edges', to take on such a mammoth long distance trek?

The first reason is too raise money for charities that hold special significance to him – Macmillan Cancer Support, MS Society and Help for Heroes. All money will be divided equally between the three good causes

On his website, Dave adds: "If I'm honest, I'm also

- Dave has estimated the total amount of steps that will be taken during the challenge is 2,361,882.05

- The minimum amount of hours to be spent walking, calculated using a 2.5 mph walking speed, is 451.

- Dave anticipates that between nine and 10 hours a day will be spent walking and the journey will take around 50 days.

- The number of counties that will be crossed during the challenge is 31.

CHALLENGE: Dave Redmond will walking the length of mainland Britain to raise money for charity motivated by a desire to know whether or not I can do it. The minute I thought this escapade up in a moment of whimsy there were doubts.

"My rebellious little brain just reared up and that was it. I was going to do this. It can be done, by me.

"And here's a final overly-sentimental reason for you.

"When my little girl grows up I want her to see me as a man who has done some things for the people and the issues he cares about.

"Not a fat lawyer sat in an arm chair talking a lot of talk."

on his 'little stroll', go to www.bigdaveslittlestroll.blogspot.co.uk, where the fundraising total is rising.

The target is £5,000 and at the time of going to print, £725 has been donated.

BUSY: The pupils plant the bulbs near to the new school

New school pupils plant bulbs in park

RECEPTION class pupils from River Bank Primary School have been planting bulbs in Wardown Park.

A large number of the seedlings were donated by Luton Borough Council's Parks department.

The children will follow the progress as the bulbs grow near to where their school is being built on the site of the former Wardown Swimming and Leisure Centre in Bath Road.

The new school is due to officially open in August.

Woman assaulted on cycle to work

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A 26-YEAR-OLD woman was sexually assaulted in Dunstable as she made her way to work.

The incident happened at around 3.25pm on Friday, January 17 as she cycled to work on a pathway in Stokers Close.

A man asked the woman if she had a lighter and when she stopped, he tried to strike up a conversation before attempting to touch her.

The 26-year-old shouted at the man, who then ran away.

Police have described the suspect as being a white man, around 5ft 10ins tall, bushy brown eyebrows, yellow teeth with a gap in the middle, wearing a black, hooded top with fur around it and walking a black Staffordshire bull terrier.

Detective Constable Claire Long is investigating the incident and would like to hear from anyone who saw the attack or may have information about the man.

Anyone with information can contact Bedfordshire Police on 101.

Officers are also investigating after a firm in Dunstable received calls threatening that it would be 'firebombed'.

On January 14, First Place Training in Albion Street received the threats. Two 21-year-old women have been arrested and bailed in connection with the incident.

School 'devastated' by death of pupil

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A PUPIL at Hillborough Junior School has died after suffering from breathing difficulties.

Ahmed Mohamed, 10 and a Year 5 pupil, was at the school in Hillborough Road on January 8 when the emergency services were called.

The ambulance service was called to the school at 1.13pm and took Ahmed to the Luton & Dunstable Hospital where he was declared dead upon arrival.

A statement on the school's website said he was 'an incredibly warm hearted, engaging and generous child whose presence brightened up many a grey morning'.

Luton council issued a statement which said 'members of the school, pupils and Governors are devastated and their thoughts are with the child's family'.

Ahmed's death follows the passing of another pupil at school.

Gianni Khan, who was also

10 and in Year 6, died on December 28 during the holiday period.

A statement on the school's website said 'he represented everything that is good in a child and was a credit to himself, his family and the school.'

'He will be remembered for many accomplishments, not least his outstanding contribution to sport which resulted in him winning the 'Luton Schools' X-Country Championship' and in playing with skill, passion and flair for the Football Team'.

If You've Been Suffering With Bad Health For A While... Isn't 2014 The Year To Take Control Of Your Health?

Recent advances in the understanding of the causes of the problems people commonly suffer with have led to improved diagnostic methods which can remove the "mystery" of what is causing you to feel sick and tired.

These tests focus specifically on structural and neurological regulators of your health - this is a significant part of the machinery in your body that maintains your health (but which are completely ignored in the standard battery of tests conducted in most health care settings).

These tests are not about looking at markers that tell you when the machinery's gone wrong (like blood pressure and cholesterol etc), this is about telling you WHY things have gone wrong.

When the cause is identified and treated directly with the correct procedure (rather than covered up with symptom relieving therapies like medication, acupuncture or various physical therapies) then, and only then, can the cause of the problem be cured.

In Bedford this combination of important technology that diagnoses the cause of structural and neurological health problems can only be found at the Atlas Wellness Centre.

Call them now and get a full and thorough examination of your structure and nerve system for just £37, the normal cost of such an exam is £195 so you will save £158!

You will benefit from the latest comprehensive structural examination, including digital DR X-Rays (if clinically indicated) which are computer analysed; and full and thorough thermal and electromyographic analyses of your nerve system.

Don't feel sick and tired any longer. Discover the diagnostic technology that will tell you WHY things are wrong and the proven natural treatment that can eliminate the cause of your problem and give you the safe, lasting relief you deserve.

Call them now on 01234 340317 and cut out or tear off this valuable article now and take it to your appointment. You'll be entitled to a comprehensive examination to diagnose the cause of your health problem - and you'll be on your way to safe, lasting relief! Don't delay your important diagnosis and corrective procedure another moment!

You can even call on the weekend and leave a message on their answer machine to secure your spot as they promise to return all calls; and during the week they are very busy, so if they don't pick up straight away do leave a message.

For obvious reasons they can't help everyone at this reduced price, so please call soon to secure your special opportunity.

Call 01234 340317 NOW and leave a message, if it's the weekend or the line is busy - they will get back to you as soon as they can. (Quote: BOS37SAT3)

The key to finding out why you're feeling sick and tired is having the appropriate diagnostic tests. Very often the typical tests don't pick up the problem that's causing you to feel sick and tired and in those cases all you're left with is "we just can't find anything wrong with you" or worse "it's all in your head!"

You know it's not all in your head, but without the appropriate approach and technology no one is going to be able to find out what really is wrong. It's frustrating because many people working in the health care field today are working with the assumption that they know everything that could be useful in solving your health problems.

But assumptions won't help you improve your health...

Gang leader loses appeal over shooting

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A GANG leader who injured a rival after firing a shot into a crowd outside a nightclub has been told by top judges he deserved to be locked up indefinitely.

Ashley Kieron Thomas, 26, of Honeyput Lane, Harrow, was found guilty, at Luton Crown Court in June 2010, of possessing a prohibited firearm and causing grievous bodily harm with intent.

He was handed imprisonment for public protection – which is almost identical to a life sentence – and told he will not be released until he has served at least six-and-a-half years behind bars, and only then when the Parole Board is satisfied he is no longer dangerous.

Thomas challenged his open-ended sentence at the Criminal Appeal Court, with his lawyers arguing he should not have been jailed indefinitely. The court heard how Thomas had come to the town on May 26, 2009, with two associates.

He then met up with other gang members – who had two handguns – before going to Traffik nightclub in Luton town centre.

Thomas had been involved in an angry confrontation in the foyer of the club and, once outside, he fired a pistol three times – with one of the bullets hitting a man in the groin.

However, the judges dismissed his appeal and said his imprisonment was 'appropriate'.

Red sky at morning - it must be a reflection of the Big Red Bath!

Back in the early nineties a whole flock of flamingos were happily settled in a fountain in the Arndale Centre.

This half term, they'll be back, headed up by Flammy, who will be coming in to land in St George's Square on February 15 in time for the start of half term.

Luton's Full House Feb Fest is a fab feast of a festival, the very first for children and young people.

Taking place over two days, the event is a collaboration between Full House Theatre, who have brought a professional Christmas show to Luton Library for the last two years, and Luton Culture.

The festival includes shows, storytelling, creative activities, dance workshops, youth theatre performances and even baby yoga! And because Arts Council England has stumped up the funding for it, many of the events are offered for free or at very low cost.

Full House Creative Director Ben Miles says: "Feb Fest has come about because audiences coming to the theatre at Christmas have been growing and growing.

"But we want to encourage young people and families to engage with and, most of all, enjoy the arts all year round."

Luton Culture will host most of the performances and workshops but local youth centre, Tokko, is also involved. The Wiggle Dance Workshop for children aged three to six years old and their grown-ups, takes place there on February 18 at 11am.

Next Generation Youth Theatre will be presenting two pieces at The Hat Factory as part of the festival. R.I.P Ned, suitable for those aged 11+ and A Little Bit of Everything for the 16+ age group are imaginative, dynamic fun.

On February 18 at 10am there's a craft workshop at Leagrave library suitable for children aged five and over and yes, those free baby yoga sessions for littl'uns aged 0-12 months with Flamboyance the baby flamingo, at Chaul End and Bushmead Community Centres on the same day.

From further afield, Feather Weight Theatre brings their Edinburgh Festival hit show, The Red Tree to the Hat Factory on February 17 while One Moment in Time presents a delightful puppetry piece, A Necklace of Raindrops, for free in the Central Library followed by a shadow puppet making workshop.

Very young children don't often get the chance to see a live show in the theatre. Full House are back, by popular demand, at Luton Library Theatre with Big Red Bath, their very successful adaptation of Julia Jarman's bubbly bath-time adventure book.

With cheeky animals and quirky music it's a real treat for children as young as two years old, a terrific introduction to the magic of theatre for the very tiniest members of the family. Big Red Bath is at 2pm on February 18 in the Library Theatre. And there will be storytelling told by Julia Jarman herself at Stockwood Discovery Centre on February 17.

For more details of all the Feb Fest events go to: www.luton-dunstable.co.uk, call 01582 878100 or visit: www.lutonculture.com.

Strictly stars show off their moves at the Grove Theatre

DANCE

Strictly Come Dancing
Thursday, April 10, 7.30pm

STRICTLY Come Dancing is one of the 'jewels in the crown' for the BBC and two of its stars, Pasha Kovalev and Katya Virshilas, are returning to the Grove Theatre this year with an even bigger and better show.

This much larger production will feature the pair and four guest dancers, all beautifully costumed and demonstrating a series of dance routines.

The Ballroom and Latin show will also feature a full audio-visual backdrop and light show, the ever enjoyable question and answer section, and an appearance by a local dance school. Dances that will be performed include the cha-cha, waltz, rumba, paso doble, foxtrot and jive.

Pasha, who has been dancing since the age of eight, joined Strictly in 2011 as the show entered its ninth series.

In his first series he was partnered with Waterloo Road actress Chelsea Healey and the pair made it all the way to the finals, finishing as runners-up to Harry Judd and his partner Aliona Vilani. Pasha was also a runner up in 2012 and last year he danced with Rachel Riley.

Katya appeared in the last three series and was partnered with sportsman Phil Tufnell, Gavin Henson and Daniel Lobb. She left the show in 2012.

Tickets cost £25. For bookings call 01582 602080.

Three divas are in town

MUSIC

The Grove Theatre
Sunday, March 16, 7.30pm

THREE West End leading ladies will be bringing their musical tour to the Grove when they perform their 'Broadway Divas' show.

Beth Humphries, Laura Clinton, and Stacey Wood have starred in many shows including Les Miserables, Those Were the Days and The Way We Were.

It promises to be a night of stunning costumes, and great musical arrangements and harmonies, as the Divas show why some consider them a great choice for theatre shows, concerts, corporate events or a cruise line cabaret.

The production brings you some of your favourite Broadway tunes as well as some secret gems that you may not have heard before.

There will be more than 50 songs from Broadway musicals and this group has wowed audiences in theatre and concert venues all over the country. Songs on the night will include '42nd Street', 'Broadway Baby', 'Big Spender' and 'I Get A Kick Out Of You'.

Each of the ladies have a style all of their own. The sultry Laura brings her own interpretation to every number she sings as she tries to evoke memories of a by-gone era when women were really women.

Beth is a classic musical singer with a crystal clear and pitch perfect voice. She played Eponine and Cosette in the London production of Les Miserables, and is a singer of real passion and tremendous elegance. She is currently appearing in the 25th anniversary tour of 'Rent'.

Stacey rounds off the group and she has a soaring voice which can leave you pinned to your seat.

The show was created and written by its director, David Kettle. David performed in many musicals before becoming a director and has created and directed some of the most successful touring shows in the UK over the past decade.

Tickets cost £14 and can be booked by calling the box office on 01582 602080 or online at www.grovetheatre.co.uk.

Carl Palmer is back to bring the ELP spirit

LEGENDARY rock drummer Carl Palmer, best known for his work with Emerson, Lake & Palmer, is on tour next month.

On Saturday, February 22 at 7.30pm at the Alban Arena, Carl will be playing the best of ELP's songs in his three-piece band.

Acknowledged to be one of the finest drummers in his field, Carl joined with Greg Lake and Keith Emerson to form ELP in 1970 and they went on to enjoy numerous world tours and millions of record sales.

ELP were one of the biggest rock acts around but due to a variety of reasons the group has now disbanded.

However, Carl is determined to keep the legacy alive and is now touring as 'Carl Palmer's ELP Legacy'.

This should be a dazzling show from one of the great drummers of all-time, who is joined by two accomplished players in Paul Bielatoiwicz on guitar and Simon Fitzpatrick on bass.

Tickets cost £23.50 and can be purchased by calling the box office on 01727 844488 or online at www.alban-arena.co.uk.

Breathtaking display of wildlife images is open at Stockwood

EXHIBITION

Stockwood Discovery Centre
18 January – 16 March 2014

A BREATHTAKING exhibition of 100 photographic images of wildlife, including winning and commended entries has opened at Stockwood Discovery Centre.

The British Wildlife Photography Awards were created to celebrate the talents of both amateur and professional photographers, while simultaneously highlighting the great wealth of British natural history.

With 12 separate categories including a special section for Wildlife in HD Video, the awards beautifully reveal the splendour of Britain's wildlife.

There are also two junior categories to encourage young people to connect with nature through photography.

Among the winners is wildlife photographer Neil Aldridge from Bedfordshire.

He won an award for his documentary series 'The Alternative', which looks at the badger cull and explores alternative methods to culling.

George Karbus, the Photographer of the Year winner, described his magical moment with a surfing dolphin as a 'lucky shot'.

Andrew Parkinson, wildlife photographer and BWPA judge, said: "To me it is one of those extraordinary moments in nature, a dolphin's fin cutting through the surface of the water, creating a perfect window onto the land."

"Not only was the photographer in the right place at the right time, he also had the skill to nail it. Stunning."

Chris Pine in the shadows

PREVIEWS

Jack Ryan, Grudge Match and August: Osage County
Coming Soon

THIS week our resident film expert Gavin Miller casts his critical eye on the latest Hollywood offerings to hit the big screen.

JACK RYAN: SHADOW RECRUIT (12A)

Starring: Chris Pine, Keira Knightley, Kevin Costner and Sir Kenneth Branagh

After a decade-long hiatus Star Trek's Chris Pine brings Tom Clancy's legendary character – most famously played by Harrison Ford – back to life.

The film chronicles a young Ryan's fledgling CIA career, as a covert analyst who uncovers a Russian plot to crash the US economy with a terrorist attack in this thriller which co-stars Keira Knightley, Kevin Costner and Kenneth Branagh (who also directs).

GRUDGE MATCH (12A)

Starring: Sylvester Stallone,

Robert De Niro, Kevin Hart and Ireland Baldwin

If you've always wanted to see Sylvester Stallone's Rocky Balboa face off against Robert De Niro's Jake La Motta well now you can (well kind of).

They star as a pair of ageing boxers who are coaxed out of retirement for one final bout – thirty years after their last match.

This dramedy co-stars fellow screen veteran Kim Basinger, and American comedy sensation Kevin Hart.

AUGUST – OSAGE COUNTY (15)

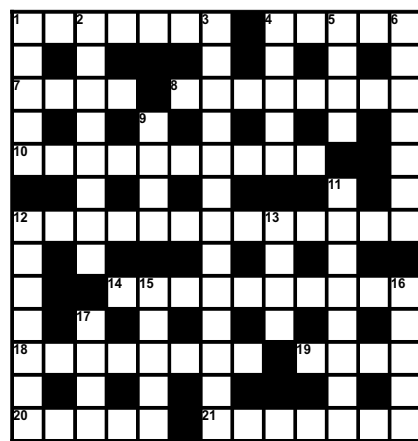

Starring: Meryl Streep, Julia Roberts, Ewan McGregor and Benedict Cumberbatch

Meryl Streep has picked up her obligatory Best Actress Oscar nomination (even though she's a long shot) in this darkly comedic tale about a dysfunctional family in America's Midwest.

Julia Roberts has also picked up a Best Supporting Actress nom, alongside an all-star cast, which also boasts Ewan McGregor, Chris Cooper and Benedict Cumberbatch.

For bookings at Cineworld Luton call 0871 200 2000.

"I would like to thank the staff of Robinsons at the Dunstable Branch, Beds, a huge thank you for all the help, assistance and pleasant manner that they have. They are also most helpful and could not do enough to please. It is not very often, in this day and age, that one can say these sort of things, but, many, many thanks. You should be proud that you have professional, efficient staff representing the name of Robinsons."

- Eileen Brown

"Hi Michael, Thank you very much for forwarding new property pictures. I forwarded those to Peter and we jointly decided that we do not wish to see it. We also had a thought about the Chapel and it seems a little expensive with taking into account our additional expenses, also commuting aspect play important role, thus we probably will stick to Luton area as for now. We would like to thank you very much for your effort and involvement. You are doing a good job. Hope we will have future opportunities to ask for your assistance in the future."

NEWS

House prices rose by 8.4% in 2013, Nationwide says
UK house prices rose by 8.4% in 2013 as the economy started to gain momentum, according to the Nationwide Building Society. The annual rise meant the average home was now valued at £175,826, it said. The change was driven by annual house price growth of 14.9% in the final quarter compared with a year earlier in London, but prices rose in all regions. However, it said the average UK property price remained 5% below the peak in prices reached in late 2007.

AUDI'S A GAME

Audi's second stab at fostering a supermini dynasty is called the A1 and the recipe is a far simpler one than that which resulted in the A2 some ten years previously. The hope within Audi is that the A1 can stand out from the pack with its prestige badge and premium cabin quality while holding its own with solid mechanicals borrowed from the Volkswagen Polo. It sounds like a plan that will have the rest of the contenders at the fashionable end of the supermini sector worried.

We've seen all of the engines before elsewhere in the Audi and VW group line-ups. The TSI petrol engines use turbocharging to compensate for their modest capacities, the 1.2 TSI achieving 86PS with 160Nm of torque and the entry-level 1.4 TSI chipping in with 122PS and 200Nm. There's also a 185PS version of this 1.4 that uses both supercharger and turbocharger allied with a clever 7-speed DSG semi-automatic gearbox. The diesel option is a 1.6-litre common-rail injection TDI unit with 105PS and 250Nm. Both of the entry-level petrol engines return very similar economy and emissions figures of about 55mpg and 119g/km. The diesel is substantially better with an excellent 70.6mpg and a CO2 output of 105g/km.

A conventional supermini shape is adopted by the A1, which isn't a great surprise given its mechanical similarity to the largely conventional VW Polo. It also means that the A1 gains an edge over rivals from the trendier end of the supermini sector with a 267-litre boot that expands to 920 litres with the rear seat backs folded.

The exterior of the car is crawling with recognisable Audi design cues and although you couldn't call it looks adventurous, the A1 has got the combination of neat proportions and engaging detailing that Audi does so well. The one feature that obviously breaks from the Audi master plan is the roof arch which can be specified in a different colour to the rest of the bodywork.

Record broken after Gray's magic treble

HATTERS

SKRILL PREMIER
LUTON TOWN 3
NUNEATON TOWN 0

BY TOM SHARP
 sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

IN their current roles and with the harrowing statistic of Nuneaton never having beaten Luton in league nor cup, this result should never have been in doubt.

However up until the Hatters shook off some temporary ring-rust early in the second period, the outcome of this one was not so clear-cut.

A rocky first half was forgotten for Luton as Andre Gray's striking masterclass helped the hosts on their way to a tenth straight home win and extended their unbeaten league streak to 20 matches, a new club record.

Gray's hat-trick, three goals of different execution but similarly mouth-watering class either side of a vicious downpour that suspended play for ten minutes, was the tonic on another soggy afternoon at Kenilworth Road.

More dropped points for ex-boss Richard Money's Cambridge at Dartford ensured another satisfying day as Town improved their Skrill Premier lead to three points.

It has not been the most productive month for the Hatters' league aspirations having not played since their gritty goalless draw at Lincoln three weeks prior.

Despite a relatively quiet month in the Skrill Premier, it's been a revolving door at Kenilworth Road.

With Alex Wall, Shaun Whalley and JJ O'Donnell temporarily finding pastures new, Town have supplemented their losses with four replacements.

Having already run the rule over Kane Ferdinand and Ryan Inniss, Still's other two acquisitions were thrust into the match-day 16.

Norwich City loanee Cameron McGeehan was required to fill the central midfield void left by Jonathan Smith and Pelly Ruddock

SOAKED: Andre Gray is caught in the storm yesterday
Picture: Gareth Owen

while Fraser Franks, a centre-back signed from Welling United, started on the bench.

The former immediately endeared himself to the home faithful with a crunching second-minute tackle on Wes York. The 18-year-old had clearly read the Conference handbook prior to his one-month loan. You will not get anywhere without a rough side in your repertoire.

But for McGeehan's liveliness, a visible level of rust hindered Luton.

Had Nuneaton top scorer Louis Moulton connected better with his ninth-minute effort Boro might have punished Town's uncertain beginning.

The rain that had threatened a second consecutive Hatters home game dispersed momentarily and with it a chink of brightness glimmered for the hosts.

A purposeful ten-minute spell was punctuated by McGeehan's terrific left-foot half volley that whistled just over the bar. On the early evidence, Still would be wise to inquire about an extension to his short deal from the Canaries.

As Town continued to toil on the heavy pitch the deadlock looked to be loosening. Scott Griffiths' 40th-minute smash across goal almost left full-back Danny Sleath red-faced. Lucky for Sleath and the visitors, the ball flashed wide as Nuneaton lived dangerously.

Boro were living vicariously at the back but were proving a decent force at the other end.

Adam Walker's free-kick following a Griffiths handball should have caused Town more discomfort but captain Gareth Dean's header was grabbed gratefully by Mark Tyler. Dean's effort was the final action of a very ordinary first half for the Hatters.

The home crowd should not have worried though as in the 49th minute, Gray pounced for his fifteenth of the season to raise the roof.

Just one minute later the elements almost took the roof off for real in a tropical downpour, leaving both sets of players to rush off in the frenzy.

With the thunder and lightning show over, it was all Luton as they pushed to kill off the game.

Their urgency to claim another was eased as Gray mopped up the loose ball after Inniss had his headed effort desperately hooked off the line.

News of Cambridge's collapse to a 3-3 draw at Dartford only fuelled home jubilation. A blast of "Money's cracking up" hit the afternoon air as ferociously as the intermittent storm.

Gray's third 13 minutes later, a cute chip over keeper James Belshaw, was the icing on the cake.

The excellent Jake Howells was unfortunate to have his sharp effort ruled out for offside with minutes to go but four would have been harsh on Nuneaton.

Three was relatively cruel on the Midlands side but Town again showed their claws at just the right time to negotiate another tricky spot. Next stop Dartford next Saturday.

Luton, Dees and Stockwood Park shine in the rain

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT
 sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON RFC comprehensively beat Old Haberdashers 55-9 at Newlands Road yesterday as they continue to keep their promotion ambition alive, having now lost just three games out of the last 13 in London 1 North.

"Conditions were the worst I've ever seen," said Luton's Backs Coach Nick Rhodes. "We had to come off for ten minutes in the second half, the hail was painful."

After 60 minutes Luton were offered the game, with the opposing skipper happy to concede, but the Luton captain was disinclined to accept, and elected to continue playing.

The decision proved to be fruitful as Luton scored a further three tries after the restart.

Debutante Chris Talanoa opened the scoring for Luton with two early tries, Jake Hobbs added a third and Ben Murphy had secured the bonus-point fourth inside thirty minutes, with Rik Hobbs converting twice to establish a 24-3 first-half lead.

Old Haberdashers scored a couple of early penalties in the second half, before Dave Brennan went over to score Luton's fifth try of the afternoon. Cue the elements as the hail came down and play was temporarily suspended. After the restart, Ryan Staff ran in Luton's sixth of the afternoon, before a pair of tries from Tom Wilmore concluded the rout.

DUNSTABLIANS edged out Market Harborough 10-8 at Bedford Road yesterday, to record their first victory in Midlands 2 (East) of 2014.

"They defended really well," said Dees' Campbell Haig. "It was tough going, a really spirited performance from the lads, we'll take the win."

Chris 'Chuckles' Chander scored Dees' first-half try, converted by Aiden Lutone, who added a penalty to conclude the Dees scoring.

The visitors scored a try and penalty of their own, but could not get the better of a Dees side determined to collect the points.

"We went off the boil a bit in the second half," said Haig. "We didn't really finish anything."

STOCKWOOD PARK made it three back-to-back league wins this weekend, beating Northampton Men's Own 31-10, and so keeping the pressure on the teams above them in Midlands 3 East. Paul Harman and James Pedder went over in the first half, with Tom Childs, Rob Hartley and Jack Brooks Stockwood's try scorers in the second half, with Jason Carr kicking three out of five conversions.

"We were battling the conditions as much as the opposition today," said skipper Jamie Hoque. "The boys showed great character to secure the win."

"It wasn't a great game of rugby," added Park's Jason Carr. "The conditions made it difficult to play our brand."

TREBLE: Hat-trick hero Andre Gray celebrates yesterday

HATTERS

BY TOM SHARP

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

THERE has been a certain element of number crunching at Kenilworth Road this season as the Hatters continue to thrive under John Still.

This time against a rugged Nuneaton side, it was three more goals, three more points, a tenth straight home league win and most notably a club record 20th game unbeaten in the league.

Nevertheless the Hatters chief is still not getting carried away with a third of the season to go but he admits he is proud of his side's endeavours.

"I am part of a team that has created that club record along with the players, supporters and staff," said Still.

"It is a wonderful record to accomplish but we have other things we would like to achieve before the season is over.

"My motto for the players at the moment is to just keep doing what we are doing and not get overawed by records but I am very proud of that statistic nonetheless."

It was a day for big performances as the weather again played its part on a dramatic afternoon.

A catastrophic downpour halted proceedings momentarily in the second half, but with the help of Andre Gray's terrific hat-trick, Town marched on.

"With the greatest respect, a blind person would have known you had to come off because you could not even see the ball," said the manager.

"You have to be sensible because there is a chance players can get injured in those rare types of situation.

"Credit my boys because they came out after the stoppage and they started again where they left off after Andre's goal.

"We showed a bit of rust at the start and we could have taken a while to get going again after the stoppage but we just ploughed on and to bag another couple was excellent.

"It was an all-round team performance and I am delighted we managed to grind out another win to add to the rest."

Still may be philosophical regarding Town's record-breaking feats but he was quick to praise 18-year-old Norwich City loan star Cameron McGeehan on a "man's performance."

"He showed strength, power, quality and was overall immense," said Still.

"I remember seeing him in the FA Youth Cup Final and he really caught my eye and again he caught my eye today.

"You can be 23 or 24 and still be a boy but Cameron put on a man's performance out there."
